Comments: ROBERSON's case was presented to Unit III U.C.C. today in absentia, per his request, for Annual review. He is currently unassigned. The CDC-840, 812, and 127 have been updated. The inmate's custody status has been reviewed and Close BR is no longer appropriate. The classification score has been adjusted to reflect two periods with no serious disciplinarys, and a mandatory placement score of 19. The inmate was sentenced to 48 years with his term starting in 1986. He has completed the required Close Custody of at least 1 year Close A and 4 years Close B custody. The Committee action is to refer to ICC for custody review, with a recommendation of Medium AR, continue present program, double cell approved and does not meet the criteria for MDO referral. The inmate stated he did not want to be present but did not have a statement of whether he agrees with the committee action or not. ROBERSON was advised of his appeal rights in prior interview with the Counselor. The inmate's presence was not necessary as the action is non-adverse and at his request. Subject was informed that his next schedule U.C.C. would be during 9/06. For all other case factors refer to Initial Classification Chrono dated 2/11/99.

Subject was asked by the committee if he will conform to Grooming Standards and he stated, "No." The Foreign Prisoner Transfer Treaty Program does not apply. Committee reviewed the inmate's Central File for double cell housing eligibility. He does not require single housing. This decision is based upon the inmate not having a history of predatory or assaultive behavior towards a cell partner. The inmate is satisfied with his current cell partner. Committee elects to continue cell status, (double cell). Inmate ROBERSON was asked by the committee if he understood and agreed with committee's actions, and he stated, 'Yes.' Committee also notes that subject's release date exceeds 15 years according to the DOM supplement CTF procedures dated 12-98. Based on the review of C-file and the CLO custody criteria and subject's failure to program, committee elects to place subject on CLO custody.

Roberson's case was brought before I.C.C. today in absentia, per his request, for a Special Review. Committee notes that in accordance with CCR 3377.2 (c) (3) (D), Inmate is eligible for Custody Reduction. He was sentenced to a total term of 48 years in which his sentence began on July 10, 1986. He has completed his required one (1) year at Close A and four (4) years at Close B Custody. Committee elects to deny custody reduction at this time due to inmate's refusal to appear before ICC. Roberson is currently voluntarily unassigned with a WG/PG of C/C. He did not participate in today's ICC and stated that he did not want to appear before ICC, or any committee, until his C/C Appeal was resolved in regards to Grooming Standards. He was advised of his appeal right and informed that when he decided to cooperate with ICC's request to appear his case would be reviewed for custody reduction. Inmate Roberson was given the required (72) hour written notification per CCR 3375 (f)(1), CDC-128B1 on file.
